

Massachusetts Collectors and Treasurers Association

Michael J. Hanlon, Executive Director
510 King Street
Littleton, MA 01460
Tel: (978)952-6644
Fax: (978)952-6655

September 22, 2009

Dear Member:

The Annual Fall Conference of the Association will be held on Wednesday, October 21st at the Log Cabin Banquet and Meeting House, 500 Easthampton Road, in Holyoke. From 8:30 AM to 9:00 AM a full continental breakfast will be provided during registration, compliments of The Bank of Western Massachusetts. Your full meeting registration fee includes a served luncheon. The Fall Conference program is on the reverse side of this letter. If you wish to drive out the night before, call the office for a list of available hotels and motels in the area.

The meeting will start at 9:00 AM with a Joint Session for Collectors and Treasures with a presentation moderated by MCTA President Susan Kelley, which will include an update on Guidance for Municipalities on Security Breaches. Assistant Attorney General Scott Schafer, Chief of the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office will address the subject matter. The session will be held in The Grand Mt. Tom Room.

Following the coffee break there will be two additional Joint Sessions of timely topics. MCTA 1st Vice President Gene Spickler will moderate a presentation by Assistant Attorney General Peter Leight, of the Insurance and Financial Services Division, who will deliver a presentation entitled, "Investments and the False Claims Act". This presentation will be held in The Grand Mt. Tom Room.

Rounding out our Conference in The Grand Mt. Tom Room, MCTA 2nd Vice President Victor Garofalo will moderate a presentation of Public Records Overview delivered by Attorney Shawn Williams from the Public Records Division of the Secretary of State's Office.

The Luncheon will start with a Fresh Fruit Salad with Raspberry Cream Dressing and Assorted Home Baked Breads with Gourmet Spreads. Your Entrée will be a split plate of Cranberry Chicken and Yankee Pot Roast Jardinière, with the Chef's choice of a Fresh Vegetable and Potato. The Luncheon will be topped off with the Log Cabin's Chocolate Fudge Cake.

We look forward to seeing you at an enjoyable and educational Fall Conference.

Mike

Michael J. Hanlon
Executive Director

Susan

Susan E. Kelley
President